

Stonehaven Loves Books!

This list has been compiled by genre as a reference tool for students and parents to use when looking for a new book to read. Many of these titles are what we would call “great literature,” and others are included for the joy they bring the reader. Check them out from our school library or your local public library, and consider sharing your favorites with a classmate.

This list is not exhaustive, and we hope you will seek out other great books not listed here. One strategy is to find other titles by the authors included on this list. PLEASE NOTE: Stonehaven does not endorse any author’s full body of work. Some authors on this list have written certain titles that do not align with our biblical worldview. Parental participation and guidance in selecting books is essential for students in Lower School grades.

Contact Mary Beth Puerto (mbpuerto@stonehavenschool.org) or our librarian (library@stonehavenschool.org) if you would like individualized recommendations or to share your recommended titles with us.
